

January 12, 1984

On January 12, 1984, twelve interested persons met with Lorraine Light at 7:30 P.M. There were more discussions. Clyde Quimby, of Springfield, who was born in Unity, brought pictures etc of interest. Lorraine had a quilt signed by area women years ago.

Audrey Shepard offered to contact Arthur and Betty Nelson of Goshen to speak at the next meeting about the forming of their Goshen Historical Society. The next meeting to be February 8th, also at Lorraine's at 7:30 P.M.

Those in attendance were Clyde Quimby, Wanda + David Lizotte, Peg Schuck, Janet and Steve Bellletsky, Peggy + Bob Gray, Lynne Cox, Audrey Shepard and John + Roberta Callum. Refreshments were served by Lorraine.

Unity history

group to form

UNITY, N. H. — A meeting to organize a Unity historical society will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at the home of Lorraine Light. Interested residents are invited to attend.